

High School Art Show Release and Permission

The undersigned hereby agrees to the Official Rules. In accordance with said rules, the student artist or the student artist's guardian agrees that their entry meets all the requirements, including the following:

- a) The student artist is the sole and exclusive original artist of the submitted artwork;
- b) The student artist is in possession of and retains all rights associated with ownership of the artwork, including the authority and right to enter the artwork into the Art Show and license its use by NCESD/ESD 171/WVMCC and OSPI;
- c) Use of copyrighted material is prohibited. Each entry may not violate U.S. copyright laws. Any entry that is found to violate copyright laws or has been copied from an existing photo or image that was not created by someone other than the student will not be accepted.

Additionally, the student artist or the student artist's guardian agree to following terms:

- a) Releases NCESD/ESD 171/WVMCC and OSPI and its employees and agents from any liability for loss, vandalism, theft, damage, or destruction of the submitted artwork while it is in ESD XX's and OSPI's possession, or on display at the exhibition location or NCESD/ESD 171/WVMCC and OSPI's offices;
- b) Agrees to save and hold harmless NCESD/ESD 171/WVMCC and OSPI and its employees and agents in the event of loss, vandalism, theft, damage, or destruction of the submitted artwork while it is in NCESD/ESD 171/WVMCC and OSPI's possession, or on display at the exhibition location or ESD XX's and OSPI's offices; and
- c) Waives any claims they may have against the NCESD/ESD 171/WVMCC and OPSI or its employees or agents should any loss, vandalism, theft, damage, or destruction occur to the submitted artwork while it is in NCESD/ESD 171/WVMCC and OSPI's possession, or on display at the exhibition location or NCESD/ESD 171/WVMCC and OSPI's offices.

If submitting electronically, you agree that entering your name and date is the legal equivalent of your manual/handwritten signature of this Release Form.
